- Discover personal gifts and challenges relative to your coaching skills
- Develop compassion and appreciation for client's and coach's individual processes and perceptions
- Identify one or two specific actions that will enhance your professional practice
- Learn to coach using full embodied intelligence

"I learned so much from this wonderful class on coaching with the Enneagram. The way Diana and Marcia masterfully shared their knowledge, and the excellent written materials provided created a class that I highly recommend. As a result of their workshop, I now have all of my clients identify their Enneagram Type via assessment, and I incorporate the Enneagram into our ongoing coaching." – Dina Silver, Santa Monica, CA.
