

DCI ENNEAGRAM LEARNING SERIES

DEEP RELATIONSHIP: Object Relations and the Enneagram Part One

You don't want to miss Belinda Gore's newly updated seven-week virtual course on Relationships, Object Relations and the Enneagram.

Join me for this powerful seven-week course on how to liberate all of your relationships using a deep understanding of Object Relations and the Enneagram.

In this virtual course, you will learn how three Primary Objects and three Dominant Affects form a 3 x 3 matrix to explain the underlying structure of each of the nine Enneagram types. Experiential exercises with fellow students, using virtual breakout rooms, give you the opportunity to have direct experience of this rich material. We will also focus on how to guide others in getting free of constricting patterns and learning to have healthier and more rewarding relationships in all aspects of their lives.

To get the most out of this course, I recommend that you have some knowledge of the Enneagram, through workshops, personal work, or reading.

Approved for 10.5 ICF CCE Units.
